

"ROB ORLEMANS & HALF PAST MIDNIGHT"

The Dutch blues-rock formation Rob Orlemans & Half Past Midnight belongs to the top of the blues and rock scene.

The power trio is regularly to be found on various national and international stages including in the USA where two albums have already been recorded. Not only does the band receive rave reviews from both the Dutch and foreign media it also leaves the audience wildly enthusiastic.

Rob Orlemans is without a doubt the "face" of the band. With his distinctive style he is called one of the best blues rock guitarists.

His somewhat experienced voice and exciting guitar work makes every performance a true happening.

The line-up of the band consists of Piet Tromp on Bas, Ernst van Ee on Drums (Highway Chile, Vengeance, Lana Lane) and Rob Orlemans on guitar and vocals.

With this robust rhythm section, Orlemans creates a dynamic band full of energy.

The most recent album "Highway Of Love" contains catchy songs with a lot of rock and blues influences and gets fantastic international reviews and has also been released outside Europe also in USA and Japan.

Rob Orlemans currently works occasionally with Michael Katon (Knock Out Boogie Tour) Album: Katon & Orlemans "LIVE K.O."
